

SANCTIONS

Because the U.S. holds trade, banking, and military dominance over most of the world, sanctions have killed millions of vulnerable people.

SANCTIONSKILL.ORG | CODEPINK.ORG

SANCTIONS KILL INTERNATIONAL DAYS OF ACTION

MARCH 13, 14, 15

Online social media campaign March 13, 14, 15

CODEPINK.ORG/sanctionskill

Selfie cards(above graphic) available for download

Sanctions 101 Webinar with Dr. Kee Park Monday, March 16 5pm PT/8pm ET This is a CODEPINK Facebook Live event

Kee B. Park, MD, MPH, is a lecturer on Global Health and Social Medicine and Director of the Korea Health Policy Project at Harvard Medical School. He also serves as Director of the North Korea Programs at the Korean American Medical Association, and has led over 20 delegations to North Korea since 2007 to work alongside and collaborate with North Korean doctors in the DPRK. Most recently he co-authored the October 2019 report “The Human Costs and Gendered Impact of Sanctions on North Korea”

For more information contact:

Teri Mattson

teri@codepink.org

